INVENT A VILLAIN CONTEST!
COME UP WITH SPIDEY'S NEXT GREAT VILLAIN?

SEE DETAILS ON BACK OF THIS PULL OUT POSTER

THE COMPETITION IS FIERCE...

PRESENT:

SPIDER-MAN'S 5 GREATEST VILLAINS

SCORPION

MacDonald Gargan — former private detective, was hired by the Daily Bugle's J. Jonah Jameson to find out how Peter Parker gets photos of Spider-Man. Jameson then hired a scientist to endow Gargan with super abilities to defeat Spider-Man. With a cybernetically-controlled tail, Gargan was ready; but extreme side-effects led him to embark on raging crime sprees as the Scorpion!

VENOM

Rejected by Spider-Man, the alien symbiote called Venom visited prisoner Eddie Brock, a convicted criminal who blamed Spider-Man for ruining his career as a journalist. The vengeful alien creature and Brock bonded and became Venom. Equipped with superhuman strength, an almost unlimited supply of webbing, and the ability to evade Spider-Man's Spider-Sense, Venom is one bad villain!

DR. OCTOPUS

Atomic researcher Otto Octavius built a harness with four tentacles to handle radioactive substances. A lab accident fused the harness to his body, allowing him to mentally-control the tentacles — and earned him the nickname Dr. Octopus! Unfortunately, Doc Ock suffered brain damage, which turned him into a crime-minded madman who's greatest obsession is Spider-Man!

RHINO

The brute who would become the Rhino was a small-time muscle man who worked for professional criminals. He was the subject of an experiment to develop a superhuman assassin. Through chemical and radiation treatments, the Rhino was created: equipped with super strength and a super-tough suit, like a rhino's hide!

KINGPIN

Kingpin is a powerful mob boss and successful NYC businessman. He committed his first crime at age 12, and engaged in body-building, personal combat training and Japanese Sumo — to bulk his body to massive proportions! The heavyweight Kingpin starts waves of crime in New York City — all thwarted in the end by Spider-Man!

Disney Comic HITS!

LETTERS PAGE

Hildy Mesnik - Editor

Welcome to the premier issue of DISNEY COMIC HITS! Whether you're a tried-and-true Disney/Marvel comics fan, or you're picking up an issue for the very first time, we're thrilled to bring you this unique series, featuring your favorite Disney characters in brand-new adventures every month!

Dear Hildy,
I just had to write and thank you for such a wonderful 12 issues of THE LITTLE MERMAID! Writer Trina Robbins deserves a big bonus for the excellent original story in TLM #12. When I received my issue I had had a very bad day. When I came in and saw THE LITTLE MERMAID, I grabbed it, and was soon under the sea with Ariel again, sharing her adventures. It was with great disappointment that I read on the last page that this will be the last issue of TLM. I thought you'd be glad to know, though, that this last issue cheered me up and life doesn't seem so gloomy now!

One question I have: would it be possible to get some original sketches, art, etc. from the comic book? Once again, thank you very much one and all for the wonderful comic book. I will miss it deeply but all good things must end...

We're glad our comics help to brighten the lives of our fans, Mark! As you can tell from this new series, all good things don't necessarily have to end. In fact, we like to think that a new chapter of great things is just beginning! We aren't able to sell original art from our comic books, Mark, because it is the property of Disney Studios. We hope that you'll continue to follow the adventures of Ariel and all of her Disney pals every month in the pages of DISNEY COMIC HITS!

Dear Disney/Marvel,
This is Robin writing back to say that you could give Pocahontas her own comic because the movie adaptation comic left it open to make her own series. Now I'm looking forward to your Timon & Pumbaa comic book this fall. My brothers are going to the San Diego Comic Convention, so be there so I can get BEAUTY & THE BEAST #1 signed by some of your staff members. Keep up the spectacular job that you are doing!

Your all-time fan,
Robin Roach
Temecula, CA

Hope you enjoyed the very first all-new Pocahontas story in this premier issue of DISNEY COMIC HITS! And we're bringing you more! Watch for another great new Pocahontas story this October from fan favorite writer, Barbara Slater!

Dear Hildy,
I liked the cover of ALADDIN #10 where Genie says "Don't sacrifice me, Al"! I like when Aladdin plays the game board.
Danielle Elaine Marino, 8
Levittown, NY

Aladdin will be back to star in DISNEY COMIC HITS this coming winter, Danielle! We can't wait!

Dear Disney,
I just wanted you to know that I received THE LION KING movie adaptation from a fellow Disney fan, Patrick Jordan. I wish to thank him for his generosity! I also wish to thank you for printing my letter in your column! I've received many letters from Disney fans like me. You've got a good thing going with the comics and letters page. Again, I wish to thank you for putting a little sunshine in my life, and other people's lives. Thanks!!!

Sincerely,
Melanie Solaki, 25
Northfield, VT

P.S. I do have the POCAHONTAS movie adaptation as well! Looks like you've got another winner here. Terrific work!

Hi, Melanie! We're glad you've made so many new friends through your love of Disney! Patrick is one heckuva nice guy to send you a copy of THE LION KING comic - they're very hard to find! Stay tuned for more of THE LION KING because next month's DISNEY COMIC HITS features the comedic escapades of that meddling meerkat, Timon, and his wacky wart hog pal, Pumbaa!

Dear Hildy,
I just purchased THE LITTLE MERMAID #12. Thank you! I see you've been listening to those readers who'd like more serious stories, because "Of Myths And Mermaids" certainly was. It was a wonderful, sweet, yet sad love story, which stayed with me long after I read it. The art that accompanied it was delightful, particularly the image of Ariadne against the moonlit sky, which is so reminiscent of the Ariel "silhouette" image on the TLM advance poster. This is without a doubt the best story you've yet put out, and most fitting for the last issue of the monthly TLM comic. Again, thank you!

I note with sadness your notice about the cessation of TLM as a monthly series. Still, it was a wonderful year, and I thank you and salute you for it.

Sincerely,
Ed Rudnicki
Wharton, NJ

Hey, Ed, we're pleased to hear such enthusiastic praise from one of our toughest critics! We salute you and thank you for your support! We're especially fond of TLM #12 ourselves — artists Walter Carzon and Dave Hunt outdid themselves! We sincerely hope that you will enjoy future THE LITTLE MERMAID stories and other featured Disney characters each month in DISNEY COMIC HITS.

Dear Marvel,
I loved your BEAUTY & THE BEAST comics. I like to read to my sister, Sarah. Keep up the good work!

Liz Alldredge, 7
Rexburg, ID

Hope you and Sarah enjoyed Pocahontas as much as you enjoyed Belle and her enchanted friends, Liz!

Dear Disney/Marvel,
I enjoyed the POCAHONTAS movie adaptation comic book. I saw the movie just before I had purchased the book. The artwork is splendid. The movie set the standard and the comic book surpassed it! I'd like to tell the penciler and inker personally that they set the standard for future works and that Glen Keane would be proud!

Sincerely,
Michelle Garcia, 14
Bellevue, NE

Artist Dan Spigale will be thrilled that you enjoyed his artwork, Michelle! We're sure you'll agree that the magic continues in this month's Pocahontas story with the spell-binding artistry of Cosmo Quartieri and Noracio Ottolini! And Michelle, we have not one but two more Disney comic book movie adaptations on the way! The first fully computer-animated feature film ever, Disney's TOY STORY, premieres at theaters and booksellers everywhere this Thanksgiving! Next spring, it's Disney's animated feature version of Victor Hugo's classic novel, THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME!

Dear Disney Comics,

I'm writing to tell you I think what you're doing by no longer printing the comics ALADDIN, BEAUTY & THE BEAST, THE LITTLE MERMAID, and THE DISNEY AFTERNOON is stupid! There's a lot of people who enjoy reading these great comics including me. About POCAHONTAS and THE LION KING, are you going to print just eleven issues and then not print any more either? Thanks for your time.

Scott Messenger, 21
S. Dayton, FL

Like you, Scott, we were very disappointed to see our other four monthly titles go. We miss our monthly adventures with Aladdin, Belle, Beast, Ariel, Darkwing Duck and all the others just as much as you do! But we're confident that our monthly featured stories in DISNEY COMIC HITS will take up where we left off and keep all your favorite Disney characters at your fingertips!

CONTEST!!!

We'd like to ask you, the readers, to create a title for our DISNEY COMIC HITS letters page! The reader who submits the winning title will receive a special autographed copy of this collector's edition of DISNEY COMIC HITS #1!

Send your letters and entries to:
DISNEY COMIC HITS
c/o Marvel Entertainment Group
357 Park Avenue South
New York, NY 10016

Please include your name, age, and address, though we will gladly withhold that information upon request!

NEXT MONTH

THE LION KING's wisest stars, Timon and Pumbaa, star in DISNEY COMIC HITS #21 in "Bunsie for a Crutina!", the zany duo fall into a heap of mischief when they steer away on a cruise ship! Their crazy misadventures are followed by two special short stories featuring Rafiki and the ever sarcastic Hyenas! See you in 30 days!

Attention subscribers! Effective with the October 1995 issue, ALADDIN, BEAUTY & THE BEAST, THE LITTLE MERMAID, and THE DISNEY AFTERNOON have been incorporated with DISNEY COMIC HITS. If you currently have a subscription to any one of the above titles, your subscription has been transferred to DISNEY COMIC HITS.
